

TrustLLM at ECAI 2025

On 26 October 2025, TrustLLM will be hosting an exciting session on large language models (LLMs) as part of the ECAI 2025 Pre-Conference in Bologna

When & where: 26 October 2025 | 15:30-17:15

University of Bologna, Room 5.2

What's it all about?

- Where do we currently stand with LLMs?
- What challenges do we need to overcome?
- What developments are on the horizon?
- What is currently driving research and practice?

The session is aimed at anyone involved with large language models – whether in research, development or application.

We look forward to the exchange and exciting discussions in Bologna!
